

300 young people get summer jobs at SBB

Samhällsbyggnadsbolaget i Norden AB (“SBB”) offers young people the opportunity to get a summer job - for every permanent employee in SBB Property Management, a young summer worker is also employed.

SBB is Europe's largest owner of social infrastructure. With this comes a responsibility to also be the most socially sustainable company. It is in this role that we stand up for society through various types of social initiatives, continue to invest in sustainability and deliver social infrastructure of great importance to many people.

"We are pleased to be able to offer 300 young people around Sweden summer jobs at the same time as we contribute to a positive start to working life", says Annika Ekström, Deputy CEO and Head of Property Management, Samhällsbyggnadsbolaget i Norden AB.
