SBB wins Nordnet's Stora Spararpriset 2023 in the category "Investor Communication of the Year"

Nordnet's Stora Spararpriset 2023 (the "Great Savings Prize 2023") is an award aimed at recognizing and encouraging listed companies that have succeeded well. It is awarded to listed companies that are forward-thinking and make a difference, within their niche. During the past few weeks, Swedes have had the opportunity to freely nominate companies in three categories; Breakthrough of the Year, Comeback of the Year and Investor Communication of the Year.

The award for "Investor Communication of the Year" is given to the company that during the year most clearly promoted a transparent and lively dialogue with its shareholders. The company and its representatives have been active in their provision of information to the market, and in reports, interviews, communication in their own channels and other activities have explained their business in a simple and easily accessible way.

The award shows that our daily work to constantly improve our communication to our shareholders has borne fruit. We are very proud to receive the Great Savings Prize 2023, voted for by the people, in the category "Investor Communication of the Year". However, we are far from satisfied and we will continue to develop our communication," says Krister Karlsson, COO and Vice President, Samhällsbyggnadsbolaget i Norden AB.
